

Meet in style

HÔTEL de CRILLON
PARIS

Event: Showroom of one prestigious jeweller
Space used: Historical meeting rooms and Presidential Suites
Number of Guests: 60 people over 1 week

The "Hotel de Crillon" was chosen by one of the most famous jeweller to make their amazing showroom in March 2006. Their requirements are a prestigious hotel located in the heart of Paris overlooking the Place de la Concorde.

The Hotel de Crillon offers a wide range of accommodations while retaining the intimate atmosphere of a private residence.

Client experienced a unique encounter with history, beauty, art, gastronomy, and absolute well-being.

The Hotel de Crillon welcomed around 60 people over a one week period where they had the opportunity to enjoy the meeting rooms offering natural daylight as their amazing view.

Moreover, they have been invited to discover the gastronomic restaurant Les Ambassadeurs where Jean-François Piège creates a cuisine as permissive as contemporary. At last, Client was more than welcome to share a quintessentially Parisian bar atmosphere, frequented by models and journalists.

In a luxurious ambiance, he presented its brand new products, range in Presidential Suites overlooking Place de la Concorde.

Working closely with the Event Organiser, the entire hotel team provided exceptional service throughout. The Sales, Banqueting and Purchasing teams arranged music and elaborate decorations to host glamorous cocktail receptions and sumptuous dinners in the Presidential Suites in the evenings.

As a Parisian Palace Property, clients may be entirely confident of the consistency of service delivered by the Hotel de Crillon. All teams in the hotel have an excellent understanding of the processes required to exceed all expectations for events of this scale. Clear and efficient communication from Management to Operations and Support teams, all come together to provide a fluid and seamless service from end-to-end.

CONCORDE
HOTELS & RESORTS

concorde-hotels.com